CONTEST PHOTOS & IMAGES

The CNR SPIN Institute is organising the internal “Photo4SPIN” competition with the aim of building up a comprehensive collection of images to support its growing communication activities (posters, website, social media channels).

- ✓ The competition is open to: all employees of the SPIN Institute; associated research staff, PhD students and postdoctoral researchers who are working at SPIN's facilities and/or are involved in research collaborations with the Institute.
- ✓ To take part, follow the rules and instructions online (scan the QR code).
